

Chairman Powell

I strongly object to any further removal of provisions which would allow an increase in media concentration in a single market through cross-ownership.

Perhaps more than others in this industry, you should be aware of the need for complete diversity of voices in the media.

It is the breadth of opinions heard which will keep our democracy strong.

I challenge you to take a strong stand for the voice of the people of our great country.